

The plan to replace FM translator stations with LPFM stations would have a negative affect on the community in many instances. National stations such as K-Love have very professional program that would be very hard to reproduce on a local level. My whole family has benefited from translator stations such as K-Love and Air1. Thanks for listening.